

RICHMOND FOLK ATTEND WEDDING OF MISS TYLER

Daughter of Former Governor of Virginia Marries To-Day at Radford.

PARTY FOR MRS. BREWSTER

Mrs. Robert S. Boshier Entertains in Honor of Her Daughter—Miss Annie Franklin Barnes Weds William Lee Gilliam.

A number of Richmond guests are in Radford today to attend the marriage at 11 o'clock of Miss Sue Hampton Tyler, daughter of former Governor of Virginia and Mrs. J. Hoge Tyler, and the Rev. Harry Whitmore officiating. There will be no reception.

Mrs. Henry Harrison Wilson will attend her sister as dame of honor, and the Rev. Edward E. Lane, of Christiansburg, will be best man. The bridesmaids are Misses Hoge Tyler, Jr., and Hal C. Tyler. The bride party and the immediate family were entertained at dinner last evening at "Lonesome," the home of the bride's parents.

For Mrs. Brewster.

Mrs. Robert S. Boshier gave a card party at her home last evening at 8:30 o'clock in honor of her daughter, Mrs. George Brewster, of New York, who is her guest for several weeks. The affair was given at the Boshier home, 2 East Franklin Street, and the drawing rooms were arranged in Christmas greens and holly, with white flowers and mistletoe on the mantels. There were nine tables playing, and supper was served after the game. Some of those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. David Leake, Mr. and Mrs. E. Randolph Williams, Miss Gabriella Page, Miss Mary Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Young, Mrs. Davidson, Misses May and Julia Grant Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Boshier, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purcell, Miss Helen Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Miss T. C. Williams, Lech Page, Joseph Taylor, C. Montgomery, Lewis Grant, Colonel J. Lane Stern, William Wortham, Richard Wortham, and others.

An interesting affair of last evening was the marriage of Miss Annie Franklin Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Franklin Barnes, to William Lee Gilliam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lech Page, Joseph Taylor, C. Montgomery, Lewis Grant, Colonel J. Lane Stern, William Wortham, Richard Wortham, and others.

The bride's wedding dress was fashioned of illusion and white satin, finished with rose-point lace and orange blossoms, and her veil fell from a canopy of real lace, fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Barnes gave his daughter away. Mrs. Eugene Holt, who was her sister's matron of honor, wore an old-fashioned gown of lace and pink brocade, and her Princess of Wales bouquet was of roses and violets. Marshall Gilliam was the groom's best man. Misses Mary Archer, Williams, of Norfolk, Carolina, and Margaret Hall Saunders, who were flower girls, wore costumes of white net over pink, and carried baskets of pink flowers. A stringed orchestra played at the wedding music, and for the small reception following.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam left later for a honeymoon trip to Florida, after which they will be at home at 1515 Ponce-de-Leon, in Atlanta, Ga. Some of the guests from a distance attending the wedding last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Holt, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, Jr., Miss Mary Archer, William Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Holt, Jr., of Burlington, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Saunders, of Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Barnes, of Williamsburg; Mrs. E. A. Saunders, and Miss Julie Saunders, of Atlantic City; Mrs. Cockrell, and Miss Evelyn Cockrell, of Jacksonville, Fla.; W. B. Sadler, of Atlanta, and Eugene Gilliam, of Norfolk.

Pretty Christmas Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wade gave a novel Christmas party last evening for the Senior Dental Class of the Medical College of Virginia at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hudgins in Ginter Park. The whole lower floor was thrown open to the guests and decorated everywhere in evergreens, holly and mistletoe. In the dining-room a real snow-storm was arranged, and the corners of the room were banked with snowdrifts. Snow fell from the ceiling and chandelier and in the middle of the table a miniature Christmas tree, hung with bright-colored ornaments, was used. There were tiny gifts for each guest, and the refreshments carried out the holiday idea, which prevailed in the decorations. About fifty guests were present.

Atfriend-Barrett.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Lila, to Edward Woolfolk Allfriend, of Atlanta, Ga., the marriage to be celebrated some time this winter.

Card Parties Discontinued.

The Thursday afternoon card parties, which have been held at the Catholic Woman's Club, will be discontinued until after the holidays.

Dance at High School.

An interesting social event of the John Marshall High School will take place on Saturday night, when the Record staff of that school will give a dance in the school gymnasium.

WILSON TO PUT LANSING IN CHARGE WHILE AWAY

Secretary of State Will Handle Foreign Affairs During President's Honeymoon.

THEY CONFER ON SITUATION

Chief Executive Anxious to Clear Up All International Matters Before Taking His Departure—Optimistic Over Austrian Reply.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, December 15.—President Wilson held a long conference with Secretary of State Lansing today, preparatory to placing him in charge of the foreign relations of the country during the honeymoon of the President and his bride.

It was learned that the President wishes to clear up all international matters as far as possible before taking his departure on Saturday night. While he is away Secretary Lansing will have complete authority in all matters pertaining to the international relations of the United States.

The President is understood to have gone over the Ancona situation in detail with Secretary Lansing.

It was learned after the conference that these two decisions were reached:

1. That the United States will not accept a plea by Austria that she did not have official knowledge of this government's position regarding submarine warfare.

2. That the fact wireless calls for assistance were sent from the Ancona after the vessel had stopped did not justify the submarine commander in continuing to shell the liner.

OFFICIALS PERTURBED OVER REPORTS FROM VIENNA

Officials were plainly perturbed over press reports from Vienna that Austria would answer the American note by saying that it did not know the position of this government's notes on the Lusitania to Germany were sent to the Austrian embassy here. A search of the records showed that copies of all communications of the Lusitania case were delivered to all the embassies in Washington, including the Austrian. A State Department official then announced that this government considered an inspection of the Austrian records as to this government's position on submarine warfare.

It was pointed out that the Lusitania documents sent forth in detail what the United States expected of submarine commanders who sought to destroy passenger-carrying liners. Officials stated that the delivery of these documents to the Austrian embassy constituted official notification. It was said that failure on the part of the Austrian Foreign Office to transmit the documents to the Austrian Foreign Office would not alter the case.

It was regarded as improbable in official circles that Austria will seek to justify the shelling of the liner after it stopped, on the ground that calls for assistance continued to be sent out over the ship's wireless. Officials generally expressed the belief that such a stand would arouse too much resentment.

NO OFFICIAL ADVICES OF ANY KIND RECEIVED

No official advice of any character was received from Vienna to-day regarding the reception of the Ancona note or the probable character of the reply. Optimism seemed to prevail everywhere in official circles, however.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

A MESS OF POTTAGE

Why are American women reputed by Europeans to be beautiful and American men so often stigmatized as ordinary?

Women buy apparel far more intelligently than men. They compare, they study, they read—in three words, they—Exercise the brain.

Now and then you'll see a woman willing to sell her brightness (the right to become a pottage) for a mess of pottage (becoming clothes). But very seldom. Women say, "Show us!" And so for this purpose we are specialists.

At the White House conference was expressed that a break in diplomatic relations will be avoided. It was stated that no advice as to what Austria's position will be had been received, but that it is regarded as certain that Austria will not sanction such inhuman warfare as the attack on the Ancona.

It was again made plain to-day that no immediate action of any kind will be taken in the cases of Baron Zweidnek, charge of the Austrian embassy, and Austrian Consul-General von Nuber, at New York. Following Mr. Lansing's conference with the President, the positive assertion was made by an administration official that it had been decided to allow the Zweidnek and von Nuber cases to stand exactly as they are until the Ancona situation has been entirely cleared up. It was indicated that if the Ancona case is settled by Secretary Lansing during the President's absence, the von Nuber and Zweidnek cases would then be over until some time in January.
